This is the beginning of a New Day.
God has given me this day
to use as I will.
I can waste it
or grow in its light and be of service to others.

But what I do
with this day is important because I have exchanged
a day of my life for it.

HAMMOND HIGH

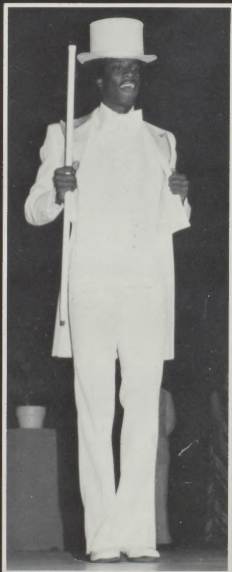

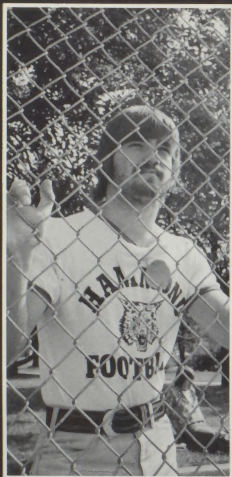

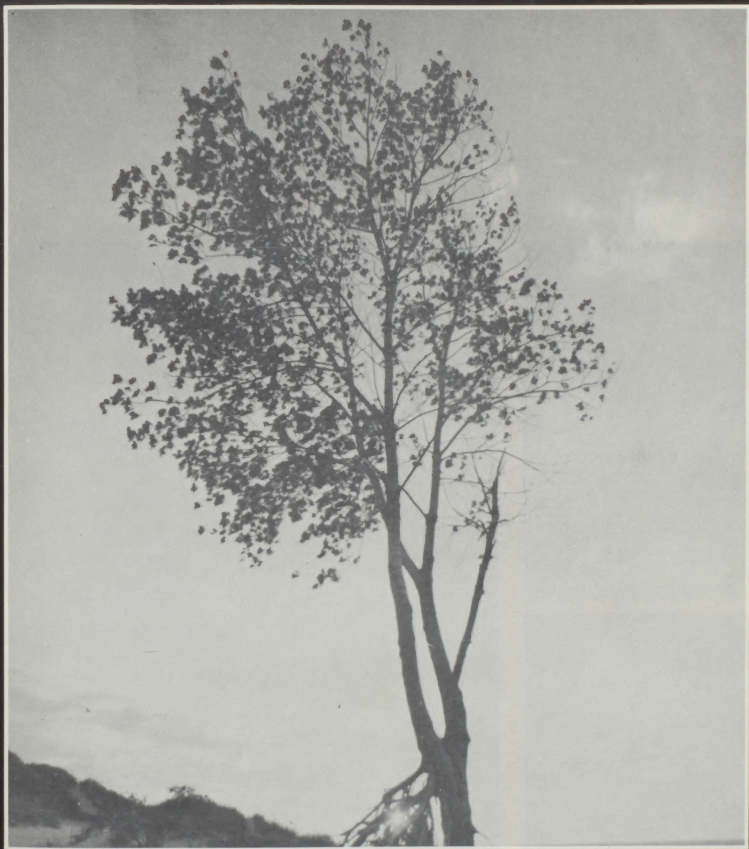

WILDCATS

When tomorrow comes,
today will be gone forever.

I hope I will not regret the price I have paid for it.

THE YEAR

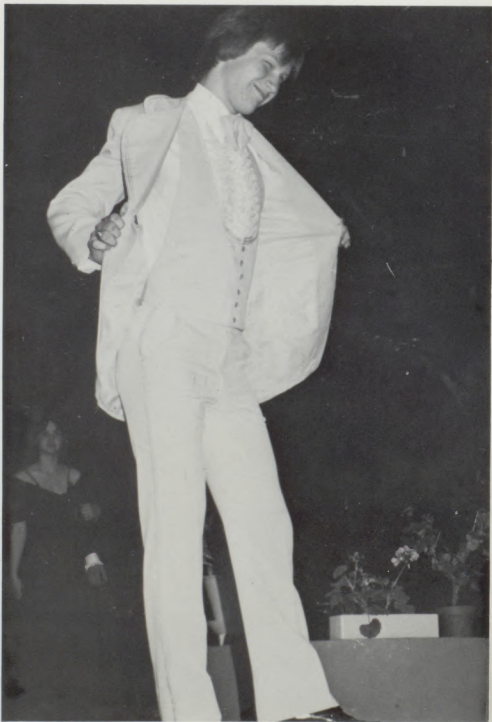

Seniors Chris Carras, Francie Pouch and Gayle Pavlovick accept Journalism Award at the Honors Day Program.

Cynthia Jordan and her escort reflect upon the past year.

Seniors graduate; couples attend prom

Graduation ceremonies for 246 seniors took place June 7, 1976 on the HHS football field, a tradition which had been discontinued for several years.

The memories of faces and happenings at Hammond High reeled through the graduates' minds, and a trace of sadness at leaving was even present in some eyes. Friends and relatives attending commencement watched from the bleachers as their respective graduates filed off the field and out into the world, their world.

High school achievements of the seniors were recognized at the 90th annual Honors Day Program. Dr. F. K. Feuerbach presented awards, medals and certificates to their recipients.

NHS members received white carnation corsages or boutonnières in honor of the 50th Anniversary of HHS's National Honor Society.

Mr. Strater, head of sports, announced Rudy Chapa as Senior Athlete of the Year.

The theme "A Time For Us" set the mood for the June 4, 1976 Junior-Senior Prom. The festivities took place at The Admiral's Convention Center in Merrillville, where everyone danced to the music of Buddy Pressner's band. Post-Prom featured music by Pyramid.

Awaiting conclusion of POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE, graduates anticipate commencement exercises.

Senior Class President Dennis Jarrett leads Pledge of Allegiance at commencement.

Susan Gostylo, valedictorian, delivers final speech.

Summer institutions attract students

STUDENT LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE — Eric Huebner, Ruth Schlesinger.

LAW AND GOVERNMENT CAMP — Terry Hendon, Phyllis Roden and Kim Whalin.

All around Indiana different organizations were sponsoring a variety of camps, institutes and programs for high school students during the summer.

Governmental programs such as Law and Government Career Camp, Girls' and Boys' State, and Student Leadership showed high school students the HOWS and WHYS of state and local government.

The other camps ranged from subjects such as engineering and foreign language overseas programs to football and wrestling camps.

Programs such as these prove to students that learning and practice in various subjects can be an enjoyable experience without the strict structured way of life as in a normal school atmosphere.

BILLY MARTIN WRESTLING CAMP — Jeff Ruckman, Joe Mattingly, Tony Maneclang and Kerry Keith.

OVERSEAS FOREIGN LANGUAGE STUDY — Tina Plinski, David Scott and Andrea Eucce.

GIRLS' STATE DELEGATES — FROM TOP —
Renee Richards, Cynthia Jordan and Wendi Tipton.

BOYS' STATE DELEGATES — Dan Russert, Scott
Cornell and David Ball.

ROSE-HULMAN ENGINEERING INSTITUTE —
Mike Vanco.

TRI-STATE UNIVERSITY WOMEN IN ENGINEERING PROGRAM — Linda Mabey, Jane Aubruner, Cynthia Jordan and Cynthia Spencer.

Homecoming week began Friday, September 24 with the inauguration of Ruth Schlesinger, Association president and ended Friday, October 1 with an association homecoming dance.

Seniors snatched 1st place in the float contest with their float "Redi-Whip Victory."

After a performance by the band, drill team and Pomcats, Beatriz Chapa was crowned Homecoming Queen for 1976, and Charles Cook was named Mr. Football.

After 34-16 victory over Gavitt, students rocked to the music of MONTERREY at the Homecoming dance.

Couples attend dance

While dancing at Winter Formal, Bob Gutierrez and his date keep time to the music.

While relaxing at 1976 Winter Formal, Diana Bereolos and her escort Jeff Vaux discuss after-dinner plans.

Taking advantage of free time, HHS students chat among themselves at Winter Formal.

While waiting for dinner to begin, Polly Greenwell and Debbie Richwalski discuss the evening's events.

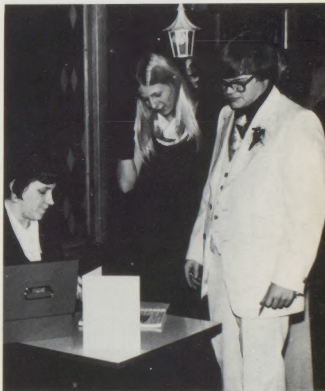

After attending Winter Formal, George Leonakis and his date exit from the Fireside Chalet.

Dinner and dancing set the stage for the Association-sponsored Winter Formal.

Many HHS students attended the dance which was held on December 18, 1976 at The Fireside Chalet, Glenwood, Illinois.

Victoria Studios photographed couples.

After making payment on pictures, Jim Leisge and his date Bobby Venzke wait for receipt.

The drama department started off the year with a familiar play, Neil Simon's "Barefoot in the Park." The play centered around the life of a newlywed couple, Corie and Paul Bratter, trying to make a go of life in New York City.

This fall, the theater department also saw the instatement of the Hammond High branch of the National Thespian Club, an organization in which participants can earn various letters and awards depending on the amount of involvement.

Spring production '77 saw a change of pace for the Hammond High School Thespians. Instead of the traditional full-length show that students usually participate in, an "Evening of One Acts" was given Friday night, March 25. Four shows — "The Cop on the Corner," "So Wonderful in White," "The Little Heir," and "While Shakespeare Slept" drew a large number of potential actors and actresses to tryouts.

The thespian team was directed by Mrs. Mary Robison.

Getting her point across, Kate the Shrew, Renee Richards shows Cleopatra, Patti Progar, that actions speak louder than words.

Eying the man whose pen created them, Laura Jakush, Annetta Sommer, April Pouch, Patti Progar and Renee Richards watch Shakespeare sleep.

Solding Alfreda Chambliss, Kara Walls shakes finger.

Marsha Renaldi introduces "While Shakespeare Slept" with a prologue of both verbal and sign expression.

Thespians change style

Showing hospital life has its dramatic moments, nurses Patti Progar and Laura Jakush act in, "So Wonderful in White."

Playing the part of producer, Dave Ball gives "Little Heir" actor Brien Dongu stage directions.

Denise Plessas examines Terri Sherrod's latest creation.

Assemblies break monotony

During the course of the school year, several assemblies were formed to entertain and break up the monotonous school-day routine. Assemblies included a yearbook sales day, the inauguration of association president Ruth Schlesinger, and a visit from the Army Jazz Band. Several pep sessions were conducted, one in which the student body was separated into their respective classes to envoke spirit throughout the students, faculty and teams.

Getting into music, Army Jazz Band performs at assembly.

Standing in aisle, Army Band trombonist plays "Hey Jude."

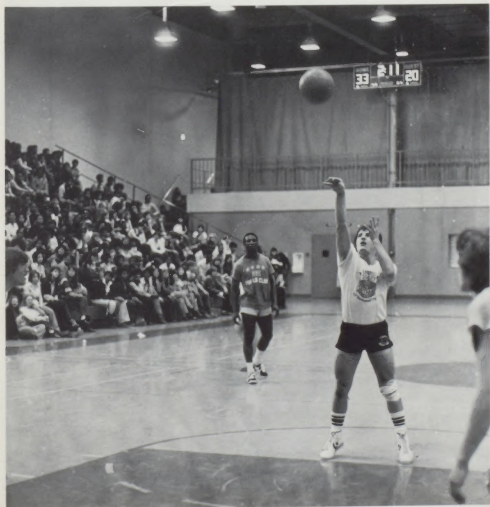

Settling down for assembly, HHS students wait for start of program.

While attending pep session, HHS students get charged up for upcoming game.

Mr. Leroy Harwell snatches ball while playing in student-faculty basketball game.

Taking free throw shot, Mr. Tom Zasada aims for basket during student-faculty basketball game.

Holding up fireplace prop, stage crew member Dave Purkey takes part in choir Christmas program.

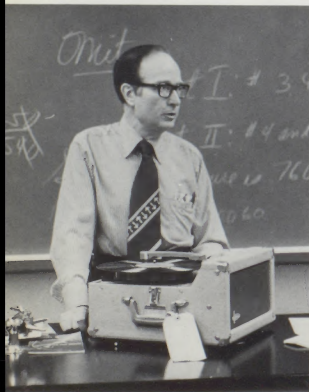

Events entertain students

Christmas time, Halloween and other holidays brought on a change of pace for HHS'ers. Many students took advantage of Halloween dressup day by donning funny as well as scary outfits and wearing them to class.

Many visits were made this year to HHS by Hammond's efficient fire department. Drills, as well as a real fire in a ticker booth, tested students on how fast and orderly they could exit the building.

During one of many fire drills, HHS students wait in snowfall for signal to return to building.

While playing record, Mr. Lawrence Lundgren serenades physics class with Christmas songs.

Sitting in a cockpit, Dave Carrico and Dwayne Hill become the pilots for their class at the Air Force's "Thrill of Flight."

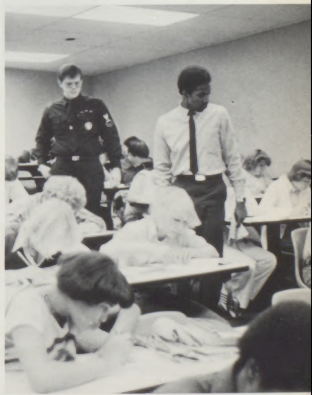

As a result of fire drill, firemen pay visit to check out the situation.

Keeping time to music, Nancy Cardenas demonstrates Spanish dance.

Donned as "bunny" and "mummy," HHS students get ready to trick-or-treat on Halloween dress-up day.

While taking Armed Forces Battery test, students concentrate on questions.

Students use free time

Utilizing free time, Mario Ehrlinger polishes his 1956 baby blue Buick Century.

Using spare time at home, Cheryl Barrell and Ann Aubruner practice flute duet.

Fulfilling part-time job, Wanda Bruhn completes overdue notices.

Unloading buns from storage, Dave Carrico fulfills his obligations as a White Castle employee.

While shopping at a bookstore, Bob Lambert skims through paperback.

While studying together, Jim and Kay Kovach complete homework assignments.

Attempting to add more excitement to their after school hours, students found new hobbies.

Jamming to music has proved to be a favorite pastime, along with having friends over as company.

Many HHSers earned money working part-time jobs while others just helped around the house.

Diverse interests highlight HHS

Seeking thrill and enjoyment, many HHSErs visited this vampiress at Scream in the Dark.

While on Washington, D.C. trip, HHS students build human pyramid.

Sweeping the Hammond area, many students "e-p'd" both friend and foe houses in search of new diversion.

"Jamming" to Monterrey, Dave Kontol and Anita Benoit enjoy homecoming dance.

Bundled up for a night of football, junior students react to plays.

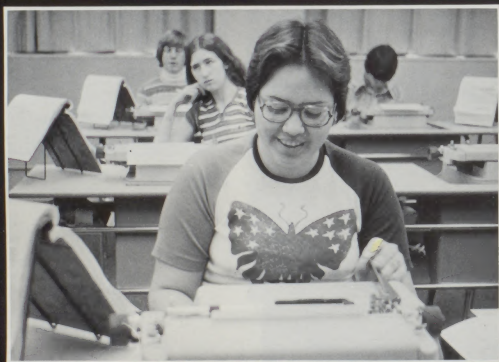

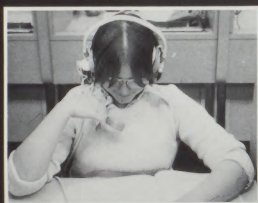

Trying to escape the drudgery of home life, HHSers sought new extracurricular activities.

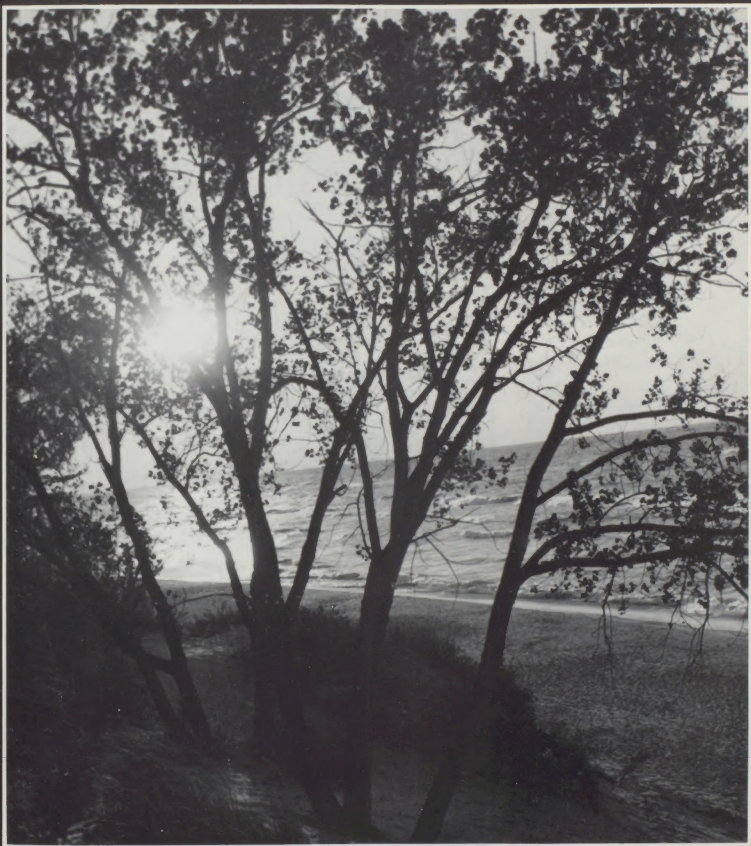

Students found "c-ping" to be exciting and challenging.

Many students passed their time by attending football and basketball games and then going out for pizza with friends.

Attending Fun Night, Sandy Anguiano and Tonya Dennis use pool facilities.

SCHOLASTICS

Preparing to give friend the "razor's edge," Pete Korellis demonstrates a new shaving cream.

Demonstrating the strength of paper towels, Carmelita Chambers balances a coffee cup.

Playing "To Tell the Hypocrite," seniors present English project.

Getting involved with students, Mr. Schwartz carries on conversation with seniors.

HHSers study English; linguists improve skills

English curriculum consisted of speech, grammar, poetry, composition and literature.

Freshmen read stories from Dickens and Shakespeare, learned sentence diagramming grammar and mythology.

Sophomores worked on speeches, read short stories and novels.

Juniors wrote their term papers and studied English literature.

Seniors read English or world literature and wrote compositions.

A chance to develop verbal and written skills was offered to French, German and Spanish students.

Students were aided by films, magazines and paperback books in the search for knowledge.

Foreign language classes ventured to the language lab with the objective of improving listening and pronouncing skills.

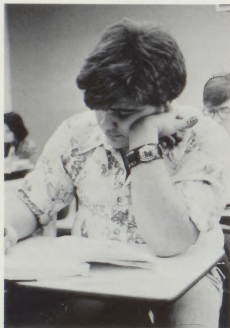

Listening to tape, Karen Lambert uses language lab facilities.

While student teaching, Miss Benedict refers to book.

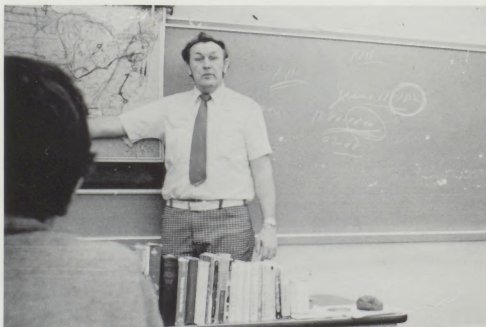

New course added

While listening to U.S. history lecture, junior Kevin Clark takes notes.

Discussing an issue, Sharon Baumgartner shares point of view with class.

Pointing at map, Mr. Steve Kucer indicates a place of importance.

Directing a general math class, Mrs. Mary Jones has students complete problems.

While teaching an Algebra class, Mr. Robert Urick demonstrates a problem on the board.

Added to the regular social studies classes was a new course, contemporary issues, taught by Mr. Ron Galosich. Included with this are the previously offered courses such as world history, U.S. history, government and econ.

The 1976 Presidential election provided the social studies classes with an extra topic to study and discuss in detail.

Fulfilling their two-year math requirements, students chose classes ranging from general math to analysis. Computer math was offered to students interested in broadening their knowledge for variations in math.

Contemplating next step in math problem, Melva Sanders begins to daydream.

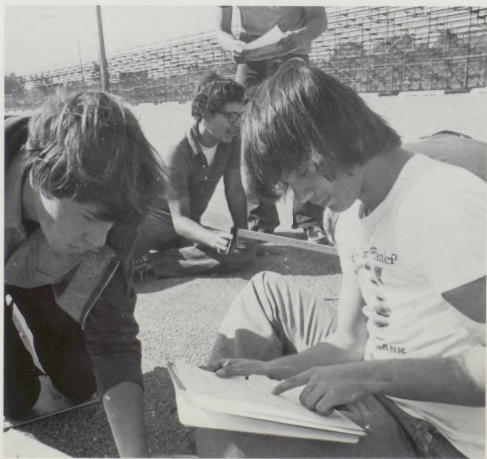

Students learn principles through experiments

While John Chamberlain measures chemicals, Dan Russert records data.

While dissecting fetal pig, Sue Jackson completes class requirements.

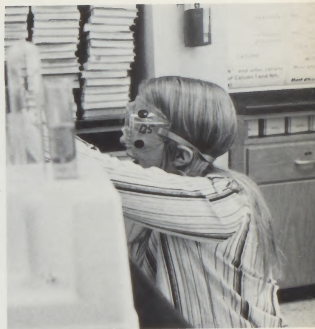

Finalizing physics homework, juniors Jim Kovach and Marc Sokol compare notes.

Observing ripple tank waves, Wanda Bruhn and Brenda Burns note findings.

Performing experiments, chemistry students record necessary data.

Checking measurement, Wendi Tipton bends to eye level of the solution.

Taking ticker-tape readings of collisions, Robert Lambert and Kay Kovach complete physics lab work.

In order to meet science requirements, students chose classes ranging from Biology I to physics and chemistry.

Students performed many interesting experiments such as dissection of worms and frogs and observing chemical reactions.

Lecturing was highlighted by lab experiments in order to understand basic concepts of science.

Students express themselves in art

Art curriculum offered a vent for expression of students. Working individually or in groups, students learned and used fundamentals in technique. Advanced art classes worked on special projects of individual interest.

Artists produced banners for the Vesper program in December.

Kneading clay, junior Brenda Welch prepares for art project.

Tapping in nails, Larry Ciba designs for string art.

Filling in graphic design, Senior Mary Kaye Hauter uses colored pencil.

Creating Vesper banners, Vicky Rarick and Debi Ramos add color.

Making a sketch, Lora Kelley begins a new art project.

Using hammer and chisel, Rick Feller carves design on log.

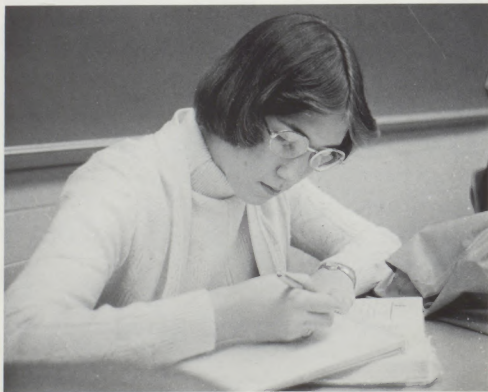

HHers learn job skills

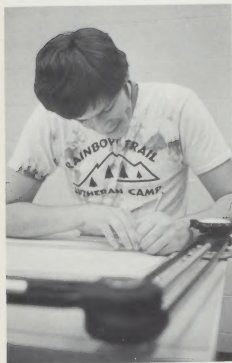

While using compass, Ken Jones begins his mechanical drawing project.

Referring to book, Sharon Baumgartner contemplates next procedure on mechanical project.

While taking dictation, Donna Waterman improves shorthand skills.

Working diligently, Steve Becz completes homework.

Using adding machine, Sue Hohenberger computes figures.

Mike Gootee concentrates on mechanical drawing project.

Students prepared themselves for jobs in business and mechanical drawing areas.

Future secretaries and business majors studied business law, shorthand and transcription, typing, bookkeeping and business machines.

Mechanical drawing students learned techniques and refined already-known procedures.

Concentrating on book, Linda Skazla gets ready for timed typing.

While working on sewing project, Gloria Miles prepares hem for stitching.

Reaching every corner, Cliff Baker works on wood's project.

While class looks on, Mrs. Hook demonstrates a new recipe.

Utilizing the planer, Bob Gonzales works on woods project.

While basting material, Gloria Carpenter works toward finishing her sewing project.

Students learn skills for future

HHSers studied practical arts for their future life. Students had the opportunity to take clothing, foods, sewing, shop and family living. Shop offered skills in wood, metal and electrical procedures.

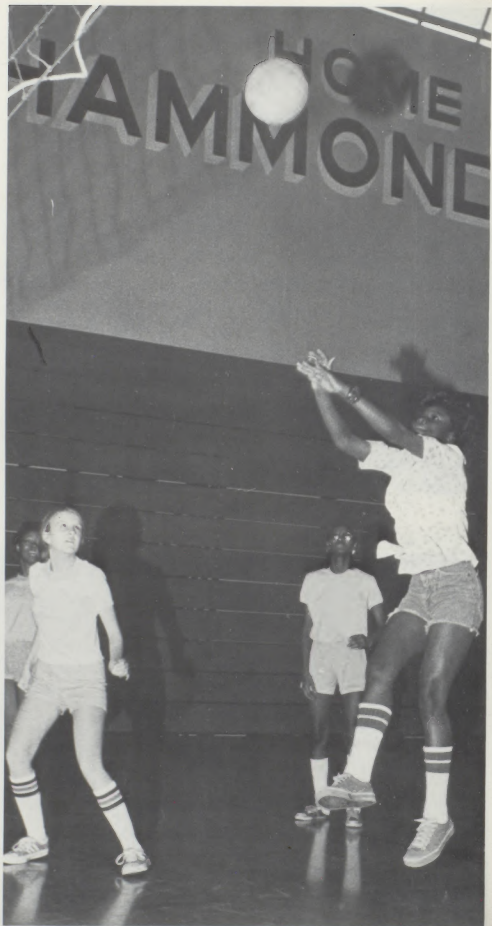

Buffing stool, Nate Wyche completes woods project.

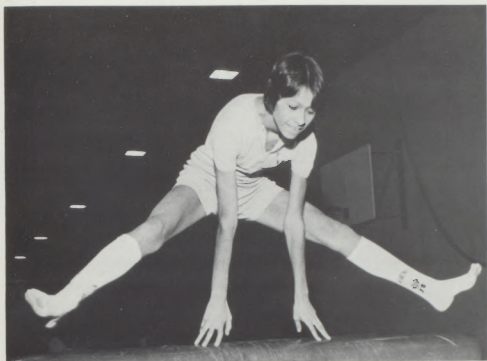

Phys ed goes coed

Waiting for further instruction, boys' swimming class listens to Mr. George Hall's directions.

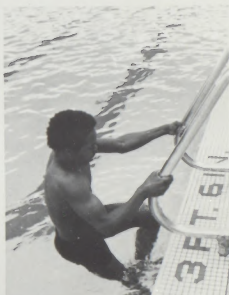

While playing volleyball, girls' p.e. class attempts to keep ball from hitting the floor.

Practicing for a grade, Teresa Alcantar completes a straddle vault.

Working on trampoline technique, Ann Kovach performs arch jump.

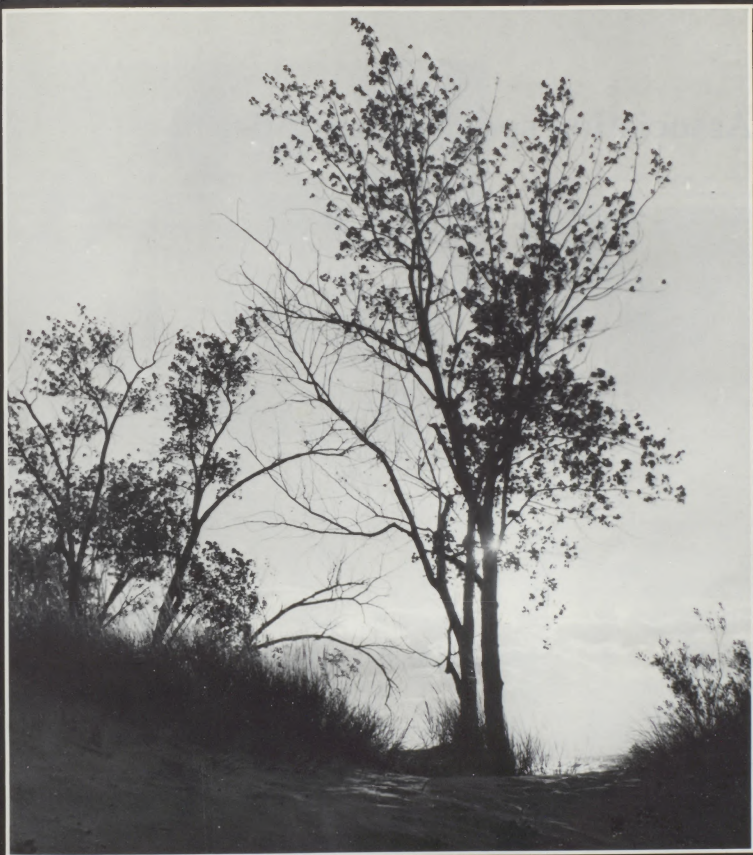

After taking dip, John Oner climbs out.

Installed for the first time at HHS, coed gym classes offered students a new and different experience. Although the classes went coed, the content of the courses remained the same.

Students learned many new techniques in swimming, diving, gymnastics, volleyball, basketball and soccer.

GROUPS

Association sponsors activities

For the 1st time in the history of HHS, a female served as association president. Serving as president, junior Ruth Schlesinger was assisted by senior Eric Huebner vice-president, and senior Dan Russert, recorder.

Association added to the enjoyment of high school life by sponsoring activities for homecoming and association weeks, poolside dance, dances featuring MONTERREY, raft racing, arm wrestling contests and Winter Formal.

Association also helped out in the production of "Barefoot in the Park" by financing half the entire production cost.

Association members Renee Richards and Ruth Schlesinger announce homecoming queen.

Department sees new faces

Underclassmen interested in expressing themselves through song became involved in boys and girls chorus. Many found that chorus was more than just an easy solid, and those who worked to achieve the HHS standard of excellence were later promoted to mixed Glee Club. Glee Club is the first stepping stone on the way to becoming a member of the Concert Choir.

BOYS CHORUS — 1st ROW: Chris Lampkins, David Morrow, Michael Collins, Kevin Thorpe, Scott Montgomery. 2nd ROW: Aaron Chambliss, Chris Cross, David Glucksman, Jon Thoreson, Eric Young. 3rd ROW: John Reed, Wilhight Lewis, Gustavo Quiroga, Gary Duncanson, Greg Spradlin. 4th ROW: Mark Grisham, Creig Cowart, Steve Garrent, Keith Smith, Aaron Earl. 5th ROW: Jaime Quiroga, Eddie Askew, Ricky Jones, Raymond Young, Tim Schmal. 6th ROW: David Tapper, James Lewis, Jeff Bloomfield, Cedric Collins, Jim Peacock.

Dancing and singing to the music of the Beach Boys, Glee Club boys "ham" it up.

Choir wins bronze in D.C.

Although 1976-77 was a relatively unharried year for the Hammond High School Concert Choir, and it did not include a trip to Washington, D.C. to compete in the Festival of Nations singing competition, it did involve the "usual" activities. Soloists and ensembles participated in regional and State singing contests, the annual concerts and shows were presented, and everyone found that the slower-paced schedule resulted in fewer nervous breakdowns, and screaming sessions than one that included car washes, paper collections and shampoo campaigns.

BARBERSHOP QUARTET — FROM TOP: Bob Donelson, Dave Nondorf, Arvel Kidd, and Jerry Jones.

GLEE CLUB — 1st ROW: Yvonne Sells, Diana Berolov, Laura Alana, Pam Orr, Charlotte Seagraves, Helen Backe, Charlotte Jordan, Stephanie Collins, Wilbert Jones, Tom Dun, Erskine Farris, Keith Smith. 2nd ROW: Cathy Stachura, Toni Seidentopf, Valerie Banks, Helen Iatrides, Cathy Doolin, Veronica Lugo, Celeste Davis, Linda Reeder, William Bunszak, Cornell Hopson, Randy Potts. 3rd ROW: Renee Draich, Andrea Ginn, Sandra Young, Andrea Kujawa, Carla Peck, Larry Bell, Kenny Kidd, Mark Johnston, Jeff Vuas, Matt Vela, Steve Stafford. 4th ROW: Elken Velasquez, Andrea Ryan, Paula Lane, Karen Schwartz, Chris Gajewski, Ann Burgan, Linda Skrele, Scott Parrish, David Gonzalez, Ken Bittick, Tommy Franks, Charles Taliaferro. 5th ROW: Marianne Soutaric, Martha Sysock, Cindy Sebasryan, Judy Sanders, Rick Fagan, Glenn Rolley, Tyrone Bailey, Craig Dent, Robin Ledbetter, Lee Frank, Pete Korellis.

While performing for Vesper Concert, all choirs respond to the direction of Mrs. Buss.

Depicting characters from Walt Disney, Girls' Chorus performs for HHS student body.

Musicians travel to clinic

Under the direction of Mr. James Qualkinbush, band members participated in many events such as the annual Hammond Christmas Parade, football games, basketball games, winter and spring concerts.

On December 17 the instrumentalists traveled to the Conrad Hilton in Chicago to attend the Mid-West Band Clinic.

Although the NISBOVA district solo contest was delayed for one week because of bad weather conditions, the soloists and ensembles were still able to attend the event, in which they all received first-place awards. Two weeks later, the group one first-placers traveled to Indianapolis to attend the State competition at Indianapolis Arsenal Tech High School.

During third hour rehearsal, concert band members run through new music material.

Staffers choose theme

Working at Bodie Studios, junior John Russert checks negative quality.

Sorting through pictures, DUNES and HERALD staffers divide them into classes.

Looking through senior list, seniors Jane Aubruner and Janice Overstreet check name spellings.

While looking over materials, HERALD staffers type newspaper columns.

Adjusting printing machine, sophomore Jim Mazur prepares to run off HERALD.

After "chasing the grouse" for 3 months of summer vacation, the editors selected the theme for the '77 DUNES. Photographs were taken by Bodie photographers, Harry V.

Dudzik and Tom Semesky, and student photographers. Yearbook work was done not only at school but also at the editors' homes.

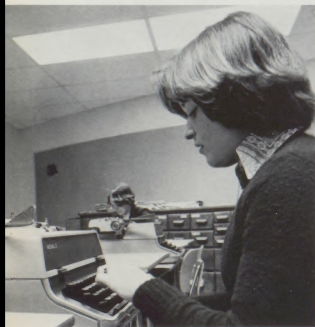

To the delight of the staff, not only did

March 3 bring to close yearbook work, but also the arrival of Dara Slivka, DUNES adviser's baby daughter.

Technique changes for Herald

Laying out-page for Herald, editor Debbie Cunningham makes final adjustments.

Associate editor Ruth Schlesinger types out next story for Herald.

Working on layout, editor Jane Aubruner and associate editor Janice Overstreet sort through pictures.

Printing their own paper on an offset duplicator, Herald staffers gained a new perspective in newspaper techniques and proved to be much cheaper. Despite a few breakdowns, the staff managed to complete stories and to circulate the Herald throughout the year.

Traveling to Notre Dame, five staffers and adviser Mr. Slivka attended a one-day seminar sponsored by Taylor Publishing Co.

Concerned about previous yearbook sales, staffers decided to try a new approach in selling yearbooks. Instead of a week by week sale, a one-day sale was executed by the staff.

DUNES STAFF — BOTTOM TO TOP: Jane Aubruner, Janice Overstreet, Renee Richards, Melissa Penrod, Donna Pupsiewicz, Dinah Jarvis, Diane Hanas, John Russert, Mark Nottoli, Jim Whitfield, Mark Schreiber, Wanda Kaminski, Michelle Perdue, Pam Gibbs, Dele Bailey.

While cheering the team on, Mary Stadnik, Candy Tebo, and Leslie Kutchin are overjoyed by Wildcat's progress.

Making use of a time-out, cheerleaders lead audience.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS — Candy Tebo, Cynthia Gates, Mary Krupinski, Mary Stadnik, Laura Cyr, Terra Buge, Leslie Kutchin.

Donned in hats and mittens, varsity cheerleaders continue to invoke enthusiasm.

Providing entertainment at half time, PomKats used many newly learned routines such as "Bob Newhart," "Bandstand," and "Happy Days."

During the year, PomKats traveled to Vincennes to learn new techniques in routines.

Money-raising activities included bake sales, candy sales and car washes.

Sponsored by Mr. James Qualkinbush, 14 new girls were added to the squad of 16.

During football season Drill Team members performed with the band at half time. Drill girls also accompanied the band at both Christmas and Memorial Day parades using new variations of drills and precision marching.

Marching steadily, drill team members participate in annual Hammond Christmas parade.

Standing at attention, PomKats wait for the start of the music.

Waiting for the start of the drum cadence, PomKats line up on east side of gym.

PomKats learn new routines

Performing to the song "Rose of Washington Square," PomKats complete routine for the audience.

Clubs start late in year

Although clubs were put off till the last three months of the school year, many students took an interest in belonging to an organization.

Even though interests varied from student to student, there were many clubs from which to choose. Clubs ranged from crafts to ecology club, from publications to Bible club.

Club sign up differed from past procedure. One hour in the gym was given for interested students to sign up for whatever club they preferred to join.

Students were able to join more than one club this year. Clubs were offered for four Weds. in a month. Some clubs operated only for the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays. Others were open the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays for students that wished to try out different clubs.

New Vesper backdrops created

Kept busy by plays, assemblies and musical productions, stage crew created and assembled props, erected risers and handled all lighting jobs.

Special background scenery was made this year for the Vesper concert. The scenery was designed by Mr. Martin Stiglitz and was painted and assembled by the stage crew, and special help was given from the art department.

Many hours were spent by the stage crew attending after school rehearsals, in which they assisted with props and learned lighting cues.

The gun sounds — and they're off!

The 1976 track and field season saw the end of the Dan Candiano dynasty, and the loss of notable runners Gordon Bonham, David Parker, Ted McClendon and national record holder Rudy Chapa. The team as a whole earned a co-conference championship, while Gordon Bonham was the regional winner in the two-mile with a time of 9:24.0. Rudy Chapa went undefeated in solo events and ran a 10,000 meter race which qualified him to participate in the Olympic Trials in Eugene, Oregon. The team's overall record was an impressive 8-1, the only loss being to Bishop Noll, their arch rivals of the last several years.

Cross Country was a re-building experience in 1976 with not only a new coach, former assistant coach Bob Stephens, but a team made up entirely of underclassmen. Although Greg Klein was plagued by injuries, both he and Ed Schuster placed in the top ten in conference finals and Schuster earned a bid at regionals due to an outstanding sectional time.

Frosh swishers end 2nd in LSC

Frosh "A" team b-ballers ended their season with an outstanding record of 15 wins and 3 losses. Their losses were to T.F. North, Noll and Noll in the Lake Shore Conference tourney. Frosh Wildcats ended 2nd in L.S.C. standings.

Frosh "B" team also had a season record of 8 wins and 2 losses. Their losses were to Lake Central and Munster.

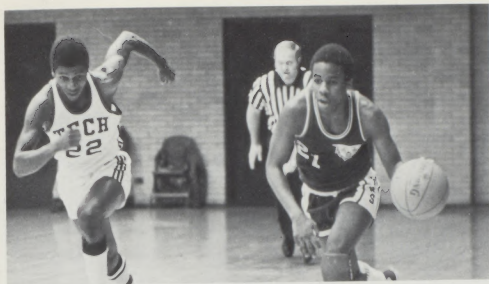

After taking a shot, Wildcats and opponents scramble for rebound.

Concentrating on game, coach John George plans next moves.

Ignoring outstretched arms of Tech opponent, Brian Weems passes ball.

HHS junior varsity b-ballers ended their '76-'77 campaign with a 7-11 record.

Led by Craig Dent's 153 points, the junior Cats connected for a total of 808 points, while opponents collectively scored 812 points.

Most steals and most turnover honors went to sophomore Craig Dent. Sophomore Vincent Doty connected on 34 of his 66 shots to capture high field goal percentage honors with 52%. Freshman Jeff Bayette finished the year with a 73% free throw average, followed closely by sophomore Pete Korellis with 61%.

Cats place 2nd in sectionals

Finishing 2-18, varsity basketballers turned in one of the poorest records in the history of HHS.

After winning their first game of the season, the Cats lost 14 in a row before defeating neighboring rival Tech. The win came on a last second shot by junior Cliff Sangster to give the b-ballers a 64-63 victory.

With the HHS victory over Hammond Tech, the Wildcats received the Brag Ball trophy. The trophy was donated by HHS and Tech alumni Paul A. Walker and David E. Hildreth, respectively. The purpose of the trophy is to maintain competitive spirit between the two schools.

To the joy of their fans, HHS placed 2nd in sectionals over Clark and Gavitt.

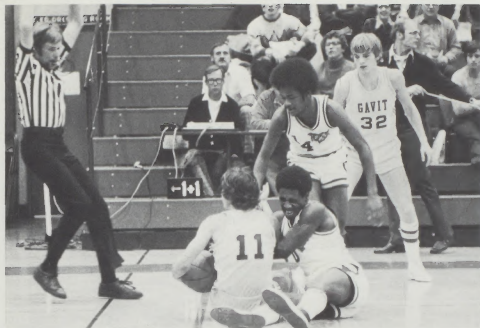

Fighting off opponents, senior Joel Roper strives to gain rebound.

Holding Brag award high over head, Terry Motley rejoices in victory over Tech.

INDIVIDUALS

Additions made in faculty and families

The 1976-77 school year has seen many new faces, and many positions were replaced by new, fresh, and rookie teachers. Those who happened upon HHS were: Mr. Brown, Miss Williams, Mrs. Dretzke, Mrs. Williamson, Mr. Bachmann, Miss Harvey and Mr. Lunsford, whose subjects range from physical education to biology. New faces were seen not only in the HHS family of faculty, but also in the faculty's families. Three future teachers and counselors were welcomed into the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schwartz (German), Mr. and Mrs. Fred Monberg (senior class counselor) and the child of Mr. Bob and Mrs. Anna Urick will have the good fortune of excelling in two subjects (math and foreign language).

Seniors prepare for their future

With the beginning of their final year, seniors made many various decisions concerning their future lives, whether college-bound or seeking employment.

Preparations for their last year included measuring for caps and gowns, ordering announcements, taking the college board tests and finalizing college applications. Included in this was picture sittings for the Class of 77 by Bodie Photographers.

Seniors completed their last days as a group by attending Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises held on June 9, 1977.

Standing against the wall, senior Brian Dongu is measured for cap and gown.

Do you know where you're going to?

Do you like the things life is showing you?

Where are you going to, do you know?

Do you get what you're hoping for?

When you look behind you there's no open door.

What are you hoping for, do you know?

Now looking back at all we planned,

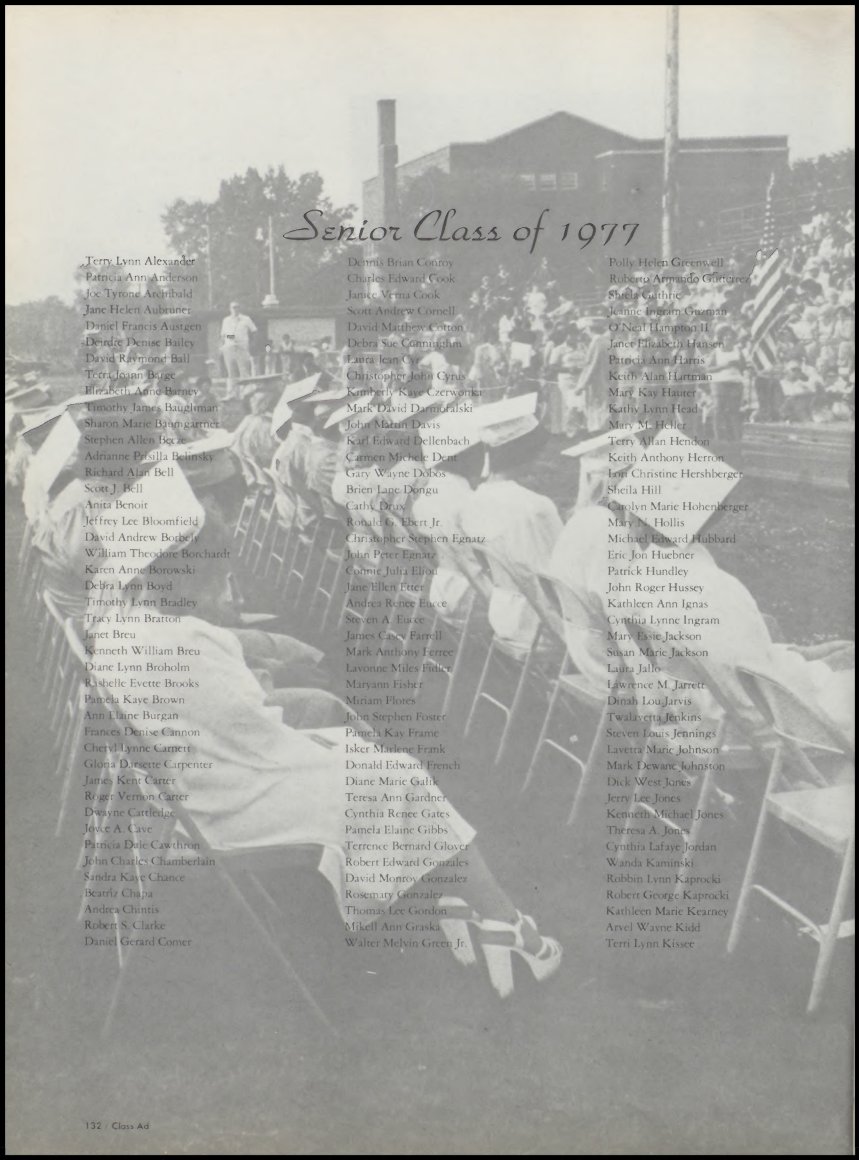

We let so many dreams just slip through our hands.

Why must we wait so long before we see

How sad the answers to those questions can be?

Senior Class of 1977

Awards given for achievement

Many HHS students were honored by various organizations for their exceptional scholastic achievements. National Honor Society members maintained 3.0 grade averages throughout their four years in high school in order to qualify for the organization.

Individuals were honored by DAR and Betty Crocker Search for Leadership Contest through selection by test scores and fellow students.

Valedictorian and Salutatorian were selected for their high achievements in all around student activities.

BETTY CROCKER AWARD WINNER — Renée Richards.

DAR AWARD WINNER — Dan Russell.

TOP SENIORS — Jane Aubruner, Tim Sporer, co-salutatorians; David Scott, valedictorian.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS — Brett Dennis, Tiffany Raysses, Erin Conley, John Markovich.

Juniors take tests, plan prom

After attending float parties and building float entitled, "When cats pour it on they'll never catch up," the class of '78 then focused their thoughts toward the upcoming prom. Juniors sold candy, flowers, valentines and conducted car washes in order to raise the much needed prom funds. Long hours were spent choosing a band, a site and a theme to make prom night a very special evening.

Juniors were informed of their class rankings, and college bound students took the PSAT/NMSQT in October and the SAT exam in April.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS — Pete Korellis, Mark Schreiber, Dan Markovich and Celeste Davis.

Sophomores gain status

Going into their 2nd year at HHS, sophomores felt at home with facilities and fellow students.

Using bake sales and other various money raising techniques, sophomores started the task of raising funds for next year's prom.

The class of "79" also ordered class rings, which is a regular beginning of the year procedure.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS — Jack Sokol, Maureen Burns, Jeff Tharp, and Kathy Merch.

Freshmen initiated

The class of '80 toured the HHS building at orientation activities. Helpful guides tried to sell elevator passes to unknowing freshmen.

This year during homecoming week frosh were initiated by doing anything the seniors requested.

As the newness of high school life wore off, freshmen elected class officers and began to plan their future at HHS.

High School is a waste of time . . .

. . . unless you find a job that turns you on and makes good use of your education. Inland Steel wants only people who want to use everything they've learned in high school--and strongly desire to grow personally and in their chosen field.

Inland's future growth depends on the creativity and productivity of its people. If you want a really challenging opportunity to contribute--with the rewards and responsibilities that go with it--Inland wants to talk to you.

We need action-seeking graduates for opportunities in clerical . . . production . . . technical . . . and craft apprenticeship areas.

Think it over. If you have high aspirations and a good high school record, take time to find out about a career with us.

Misc.

Coffee prices rose to all-time highs due to severe weather damage in coffee-growing countries.

Women added a few extra curves in the "long gray line" when they were admitted to all military academies for the first time.

"What's your handle?" A familiar question to anyone involved in the recent CB-craze.

Skateboarding popularity has made "hanging ten" a reality even in ocean-less areas.

Contrary to Pope Paul's belief that all priests should be males, the Episcopalians disagree. As of the end of January '77 forty-three women will have been ordained priests of the Episcopalian church.

Presidency

A relative unknown, Georgia's governor, James Earl Carter worked his way from local to national news on his way to the Presidency.

His campaign was based on "getting back to the people." During the road to the Presidency, three debates were held on national television between President Gerald R. Ford and Jimmy Carter. Carter won with 51%-48% of popular vote.

Deaths

Mayor Richard J. Daley passed away suddenly in late December of 1976 and left the city of Chicago in shock and sadness. Michael Bilandic took charge until a special election could be held.

The Republic of China lost her greatest mentor when Mao Tse Tung died at the age of eighty-two, with Hua Kuo-feng left leader.

Billionaire recluse Howard Hughes died, leaving many artificial wills.

Mystery writer, Agatha Christie died leaving the order for the publication of her final book in which the hero of her stories is killed.

Upcoming superstar Freddie Prinze of "Chico and the Man" took his life unexpectedly in February at his Los Angeles home.

Actor Peter Finch died suddenly, after his successful performance in the movie "Network."

The mysterious Legionnaires Disease may remain a mystery for years to come, after killing twenty-nine people in Philadelphia, Pa. for no apparent cause.

Cold weather

The winter weather of '76-'77 was the most severe in many parts of the country than was ever previously recorded.

During one of the coldest winters in Hammond's history, Hammond High School and all neighboring schools were closed. Superintendent Dr. Willard Congreve voted to close schools as an energy saving measure. This move was followed by local businesses and industries, due to an extreme natural gas shortage.

Sports

The Raiders not only captured the AFC title, but also ran past the Vikings in the Super Bowl for a 32-14 victory.

Winning $345,000.00, the semi-retired Billie Jean King became the highest money maker in women's tennis for the third year in a row.

Skating past Philadelphia Flyers, the Montreal Canadiens won the Stanley Cup play-offs.

The Cincinnati Reds were victorious over the New York Yankees in the World Series.

Indiana snatched NCAA title by beating Michigan 86-68.

On completion of the summer Olympics, the United States received 34 gold medals, 35 silver medals and 25 bronze medals, making a total of 94 medals awarded.

Vaulting to a new world record, Bruce Jenner placed first in decathlon.

John Naber won 4 gold medals in 100 and 200 meter backstroke and 400 medley relay, along with 800 meter free relay.

Romania's Nadia Comaneci was the first gymnast to score a perfect 10 in gymnastic routines. She received 7 perfect 10's and 3 golds, a silver and a bronze besides.

On completion of the winter olympics, the U.S. received 3 gold medals, 3 silver medals and 4 bronze, making a total of 10 medals awarded.

Detroit woman speed skater, Sheila Young, won gold, silver and bronze medals in 500 meter, 1500 meter and 1000 meter races respectively.

Receiving one of the 3 U.S. gold medals, Dorothy Hamill came in number one in women's single figure skating competition.

In Memoriam

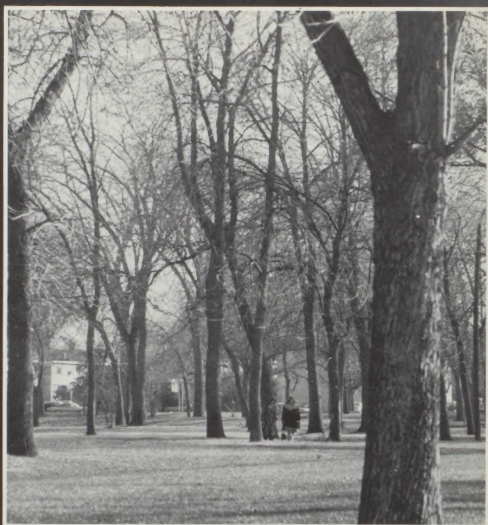

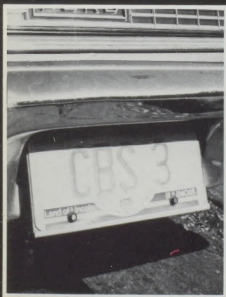

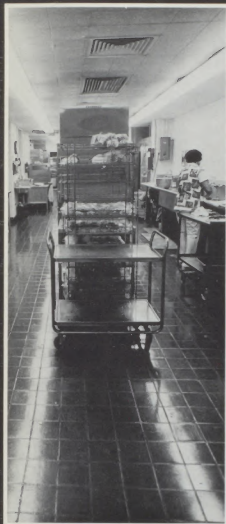

Mary Etta Edwards
 (1959-1976)

*I think if I should have to go before the Things I want to tell you have been said,
 I could not lie at peace — eternally,
 But must awake and see your face instead.*

*And then if you would smile into my eyes
 And say, I know, for so it was with me;
 My happy dust would mingle with the earth
 As laughing rivers run into the sea.*

Nina Gray

The 3:25 bell rings . . . Empty halls become full . . .
 Lockers slam . . . Goodbyes are said . . . Traces of life have disappeared . . .
 School has ended. The year has ended.
 Class by class, students leave Hammond High . . .
 Each leaving a part of themselves, their mark.
 Each must continue on and grow, leaving friends and memories behind,
 Only to leave their mark on other horizons.

*Must we go and leave the morning behind?
Could it be to hold another sunrise,
We must seek the sunset,*

Must we leave in what truly we believe?

*Like getting up at the crack of dawn,
To see the morning come —
And turning to a friend who shares,*

Together we'll touch the sun.

*Must we go and leave the evening behind?
Could it be to hold another sunrise?
We must seek the sunset,*

Must we leave in what truly we believe?

*Like tucking children into bed,
And looking thru their eyes.
To see that they are people,*

Despite their smaller size.

*Must we go and leave the day behind?
Could it be to hold another sunrise?
We must seek the sunset,*

Must we leave in what truly we believe?

*Like sitting on the dunes,
And thinking deep inside,
About these days together,*

And how they've drifted by.

*Must we go?
We'll miss you so —
It's as sad as every beautiful ending —*

Must we leave in what truly we believe.

*Gayle Ruesch
"Must We Go"*
